

To: Manzanilla, Enrique[Manzanilla.Enrique@epa.gov]; Herrera, Angeles[Herrera.Angeles@epa.gov]
From: Reyes, Deldi
Sent: Thur 4/4/2013 3:07:37 PM
Subject: FW: (Exides Lead Smelter) L.A. City Council members irate over arsenic emissions

A reminder - Roger Kintz had asked us to help convene the agencies with regard to Exide. I think that train has left the station. Now all we can probably do is put some pressure on DTSC to issue an enforceable (Part B) permit.

From: Maier, Brent
Sent: Thursday, April 04, 2013 7:29 AM
To: Adams, Elizabeth; Shaffer, Caleb; Rios, Gerardo; Tax, Wienke; BANDROWSKI, MIKE; Reyes, Deldi; Keener, Bill; Zito, Kelly; Mogharabi, Nahal; Glosson, Niloufar; Gutierrez, Roberto
Cc: John, Steven
Subject: (Exides Lead Smelter) L.A. City Council members irate over arsenic emissions

Please see the following article that Steven John sent to me. - Brent

From: john.steven@epa.gov
Sent: Thursday, April 04, 2013 7:17:41 AM
To: Maier, Brent
Subject: L.A. City Council members irate over arsenic emissions

Hi,

LATimes article on LACity Council reactions to arsenic releases from Exide Battery facility

I thought you'd like this:

<http://soa.li/8k5Y2HV>

L.A. City Council members irate over arsenic emissions

Los Angeles City Council members Wednesday expressed fury at recent revelations that arsenic emissions from a battery-recycling plant in nearby Vernon pose a danger to as many as 110,000 people, and called upon the city attorney to look into possible legal action.

To unsubscribe click here.